SCYA Service Manager: Sylvia Wheeler.

In addition to in-person attendance, several members participated via zoom. Refer to separate attachment for attendance.

The meeting and presentation were given throughout the luncheon.

A quorum was established. Twenty-two clubs were present. No correspondence has been received.

BCYC Commodore Ginny Lombardi made opening remarks and Morrie Kirk gave the toast.

The Minutes from the previous General Meeting in March at Southwestern Yacht Club were discussed. Jerry Martin made the motion to approve the minutes and Norie Martin seconded it. The motion passed.

Rick Dinon referred to the report for the Nominations for the 2021 officers. The slate will be provided at the November meeting. There are no nominations from the floor. Refer to the bylaws for making any additional nominations and contact the office.

The 2021 slate is:

Commodore: Bill McNamara

Vice Commodore: Anne Eubanks

Rear commodore: John Caldwell

Treasurer: Chris Haro

Secretary: Lorraine Collier

Continuing Directors: Joyce Jackson-Coomber, Kimberley Milligan, John Praiswater, Owen Provence, Kathy St. Amant

Incoming Directors: Themis Glatman, Marie Rogers, Paul DeGraw, Doug Green

Outgoing Officers: M.L. Buck, Marlyn Dinon, Darrell Sausser, Chuck Jeglikowski

Treasurer Jeglikowski presented the Treasurer's Report. We may make a net profit of $11K for the year. Chris Haro will be the Treasurer for 2021 and is the current Commodore for South Shore Yacht Club.

Jerry Martin provided the membership update. The committee recommends advancing the American Legion Yacht Club to Senior Club status.

Commodore Marshall commented on the Zoom Roundtables. The next meeting is Tuesday 9/22 at 6: 30pm. We typically have 30+ commodores on the call.

The SCYA Commodores' Cruise to Avalon will be 10/23 to 10/25. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Atwater Hotel or you can take your own boat. There will be a reception Friday night and miniature golf on Saturday. Refer to the website for details.

The next meeting will be 11/7 at BCYC.

We are looking for RBOC donations. They continue to advocate for boaters' rights at local, state, and national levels.

Two gift baskets were raffled off. The winners were Ginny Eaton and Melis Askew.

Rear Commodore Eubanks announced that the nominations for the Pandemic Powerhouse Award are due by 10/2/20. We want a perspective on how clubs have handled COVID-19.

Commodore Marshall was the keynote speaker. He presented a detailed and captivating History of Avalon.

Commodore Marshall presented the Old Salt Award for 50 Years of Yachting to Eric McClure, Rod Woods, Gary Tolar, Dave Speakman, and Mary Bacon.

He also presented the Perpetual Award for the most Staff Commodores present. This was a tie between Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club and Huntington Harbor Yacht Club with 5 SC from each club in attendance.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:30pm.
